Trails Subcommittee Report & Information Session (Agenda Item No. 5)

This meeting is the first of two anticipated meetings to consider a report from the trails subcommittee regarding the recommendations that follow from their 11 meetings. After a brief introduction of the meeting format and an introduction of the trails subcommittee's work, the meeting will break out into an information session to review trails maps that record the subcommittee's recommendations regarding inland trails and coastal trails and access. This first meeting will be largely devoted to inland an interconnecting trails north of Highway 101 up to the ridgeline. The second meeting is planned to be largely devoted to coastal trails and coastal access issues south of Highway 101.

A portion of the meeting will be a workshop format devoted to review of trails maps so that attendees can get a clearer understanding about the subcommittee recommendations. The three maps will be located in different stations manned by staff, subcommittee, and GavPAC members in order to provide explanation of the maps and answer any questions. After a certain time, attendees would be able to rotate among the stations in order to review each of the maps. After the map review, the GavPAC will convene to take public comment and deliberate on the subcommittee recommendations for trails and public access in a geographically systematic fashion, generally east to west.
