

Did You Receive A Census Form With an Incorrect Address? Here's what to do...

- If the city and/or ZIP Code are incorrect but the street address is correct:
 - Complete the form
 - Correct the city name and/or ZIP Code
 - Mail back the form
- If the house number and/or street name are incorrect, AND you have not completed questions on the form:
 - Write 'Wrong Address' on the front of the envelope
 - Leave the questions blank
 - Place the envelope in the mail
 - A Census Worker will follow up with you at a later time
- If the house number and/or street name are incorrect AND you have completed questions on the form, but have not mailed it back:
 - Discard the form in a way that is comfortable for you so your personal information is not made known to the public
 - A Census worker will follow up with you at a later time
- If the house number and/or street name are incorrect AND you have completed questions on the form AND you have mailed the form back:
 - A Census Worker may follow up with you at a later time

Thank you! The accuracy of your information is important to us.

For more information, please visit 2010census.gov